

VCE Loudoun Master Gardeners Present Free Virtual Lecture Series

Respecting the Shenandoah

Please join us to learn about how Mark became a Riverkeeper, what exactly a Riverkeeper is, and what Riverkeepers do to protect rivers like the Shenandoah River. Mark will also address what community members can do to safeguard and protect rivers when managing their own properties.

Mark Frondorf joined the Potomac Riverkeeper Network in 2015 as the Shenandoah Riverkeeper. Having guided on the Shenandoah and Potomac for over twenty years, Mark is used to hard work and recognizing the importance of a hands-on approach to protecting our rivers. His passion for the water, combined with his people and analytical skills, honed over 25 years as a think tank senior policy analyst tackling some of the most vexing issues facing our nation, make him ideally suited to defend the Shenandoah against pollution, protect our right to clean water, and promote the recreational use of this beautiful river.
