

VCE Loudoun Master Gardeners Present Free Virtual Lecture Series

Jumpstart Your Spring Vegetable Garden!

This information-packed talk will feature the fundamentals of preparing your vegetable garden for the spring vegetable season. Those thinking of starting a vegetable garden are encouraged to tune in as well to learn what it takes to get a vegetable garden going. March is the perfect time to plan, prepare, and begin planting those cool season vegetables, so come learn or refresh your knowledge.

Denise Palmer started her serious adventures in vegetable gardening many years ago by joining the VCE Loudoun Master Gardeners. She gave countless lectures to the residents of Loudoun County, inspiring them to plant and maintain a vegetable garden. Her depth of knowledge concerning vegetables is expansive. She focuses on practical and proven methods that bring success. Since bringing her skills to North Carolina, she continues to pursue her passion for the vegetable garden by being part of the North Carolina Extension Master Gardener program.
